

Preparation for GCSE Modern Foreign Languages

You are strongly recommended to spend some time between now and September getting yourself ready to study GCSE French and Spanish at a more advanced level. With languages, it usually works best if you study little and often if you can. Any work done now will help you remember and build on what you have done in years 7, 8 and 9; it will also help prepare you for year 10 although we will of course cover all the necessary material in class.
